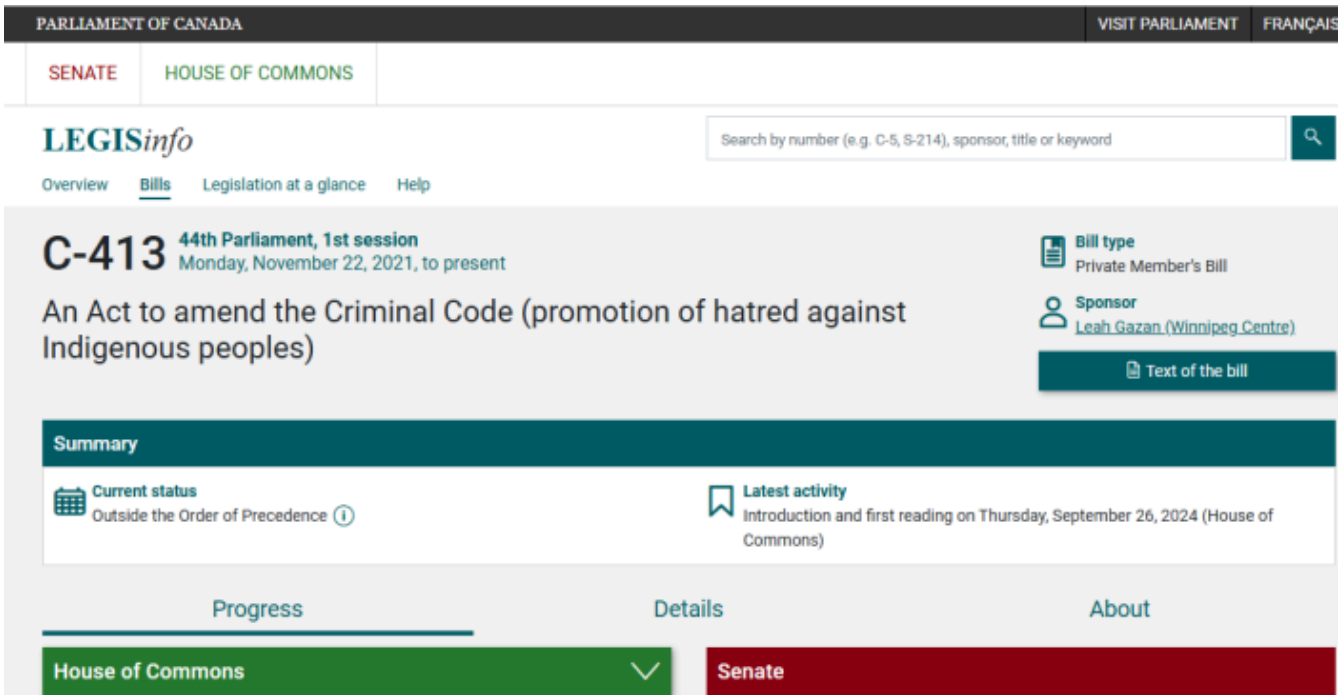
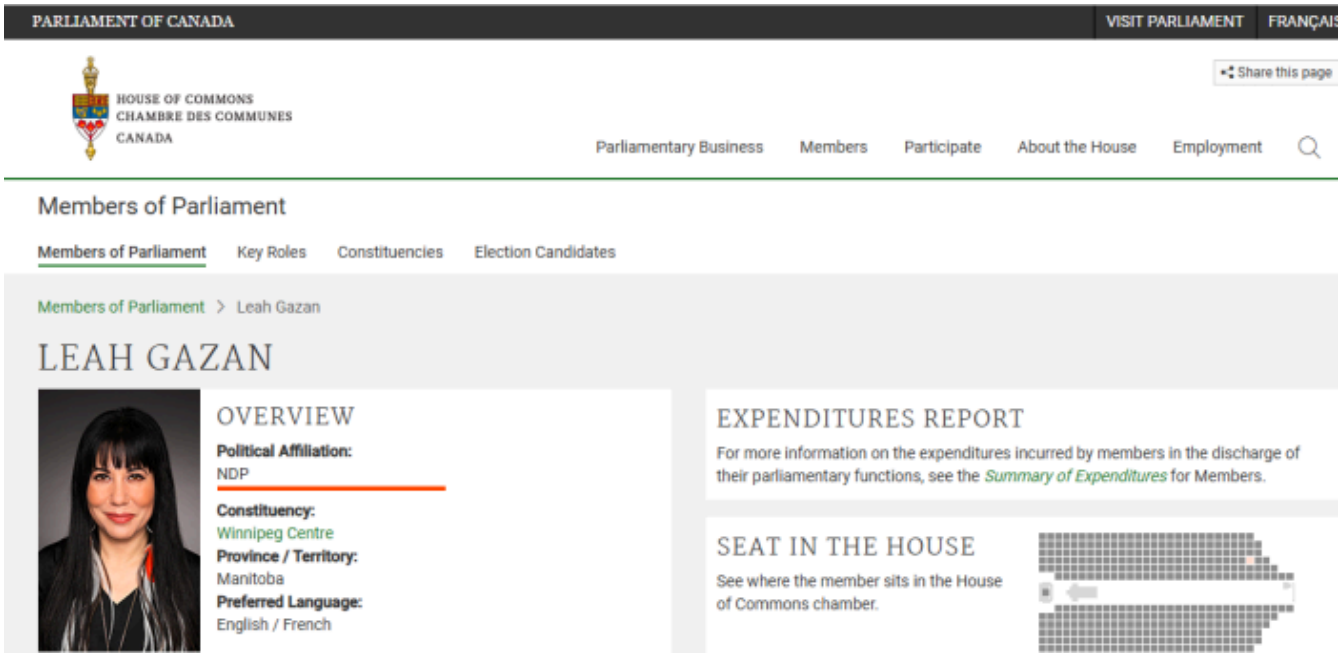
Private Member’s Bill C-413: Jail Time For Residential School “Denialism”





Leah Gazan, New Democrat M.P. for Winnipeg Centre, has made good on an earlier promise. Bill C-413 has now had First Reading in Parliament. If passed, it would ban "Residential School Denialism", and people could face prison time for doing so.

In case people still think voting matters — for some reason — let's differentiate between "left wing" politics and "right wing" politics in Canada. Hopefully, this clears things up.

Left Wing Politics: Jail Time For "Residential School Denialism"

Leah ProudLakota (she/her)
@LeahGazan
This Canadian Jewish Heritage Month, I commemorate my grandfather, David Gazan, who served in the Dutch Army during WWII, my grandmother, Gina Gazan, a concentration camp survivor, and my father, Albert Gazan, a Holocaust survivor and lifelong peace activist. (1/2)

Gazan, who is Jewish, touts the "Never Again" motto as a rationale for bringing in this Bill.

Interestingly, she rails against war crimes committed in the Middle East, by Israel. However, she seems to support the same kind of censorship laws that Zionists do regarding the Holocaust. This appears to involve some mental gymnastics, especially given her enthusiasm for abortion.

Anyhow, this is what she recently contributed:

> Criminal Code
> 1 (1) Section 319 of the Criminal Code is amended by adding the following after subsection (2.1):
> Willful promotion of hatred — Indigenous peoples

(2.2) Everyone who, by communicating statements, other than in private conversation, wilfully promotes hatred against Indigenous peoples by condoning, denying, downplaying or justifying the Indian residential school system in Canada or by misrepresenting facts relating to it

(a) is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years; or

(b) is guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction.

(2) Subsections 319(4) to (6) of the Act are replaced by the following:

Defences — subsection (2.2)

(3.2) No person shall be convicted of an offence under subsection (2.2)

(a) if they establish that the statements communicated were true;

(b) if, in good faith, they expressed or attempted to establish by an argument an opinion on a religious subject or an opinion based on a belief in a religious text;

(c) if the statements were relevant to any subject of public interest, the discussion of which was for the public benefit, and if on reasonable grounds they believed them to be true; or

(d) if, in good faith, they intended to point out, for the purpose of removal, matters producing or tending to produce feelings of hatred toward Indigenous peoples.

Forfeiture

(4) If a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1), (2), (2.1) or (2.2) or section 318, anything by means of or in relation to which the offence was committed, on such conviction, may, in addition to any other punishment imposed, be ordered by the presiding provincial court judge or judge to be forfeited to His Majesty in right of the province in which that person is convicted, for disposal as the Attorney General may direct.

Exemption from seizure of communication facilities

(5) Subsections 199(6) and (7) apply, with any modifications that the circumstances require, to subsection (1), (2), (2.1) or (2.2) or section 318.

> Consent
> (6) No proceeding for an offence under subsection (2), (2.1) or (2.2) shall be instituted without the consent of the Attorney General.

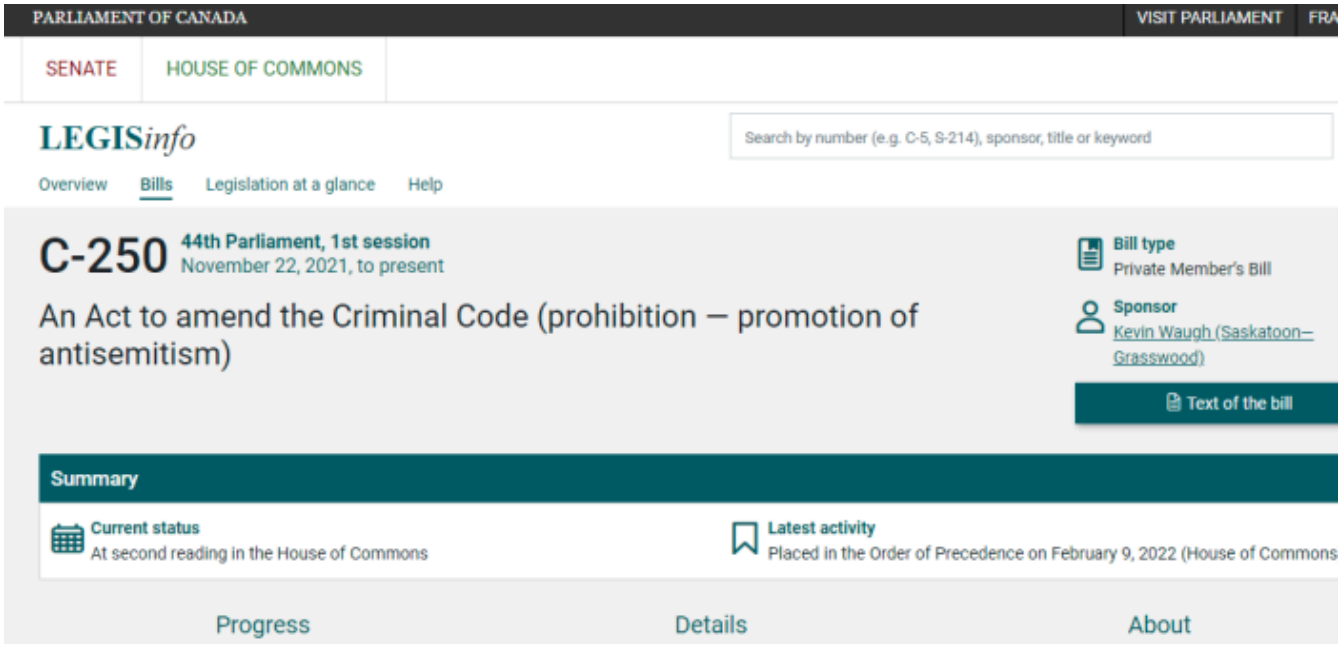
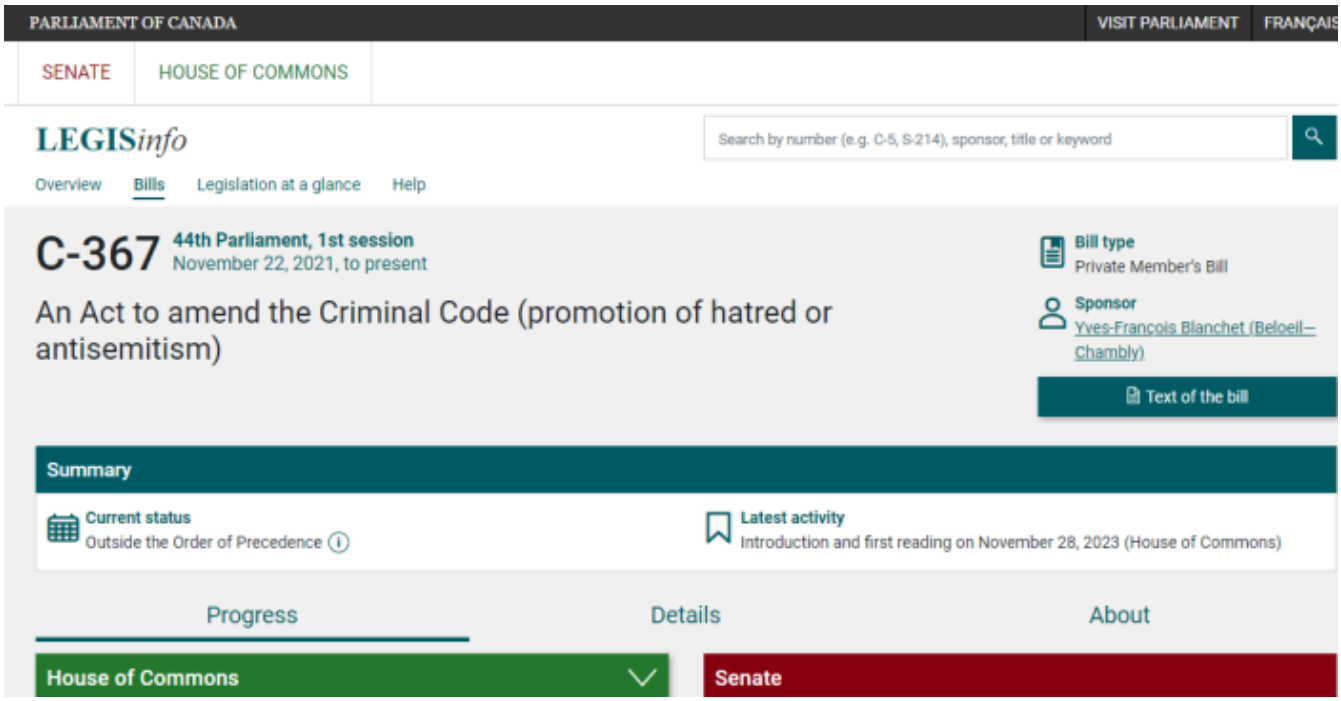
If the text of Bill C-413 looks familiar, it should. It's identical to Bill C-250. That was introduced in 2022 by "Conservative" Kevin Waugh to criminalize Holocaust denial. More on that later.

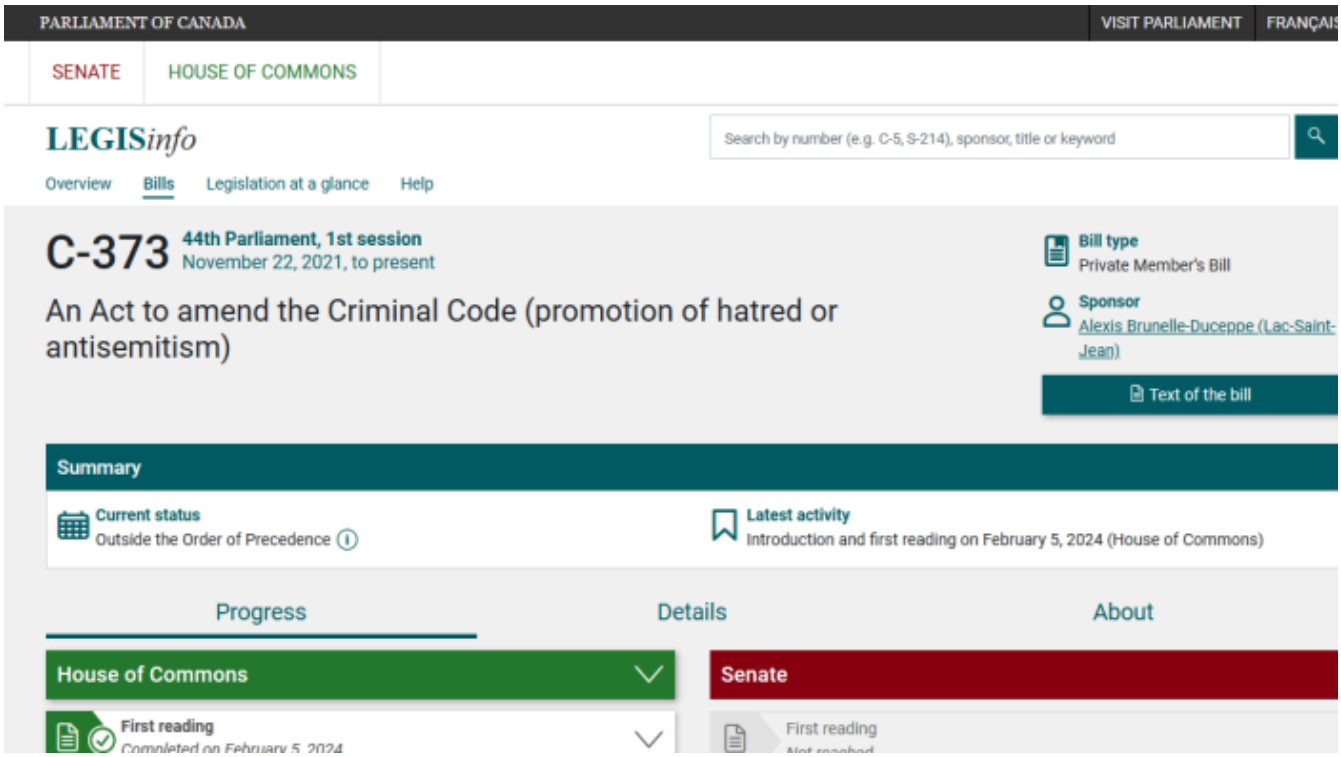
Both this Bill, and the one criminalizing Holocaust denial contain a provision that requires consent from the Attorney General to proceed. While this may be viewed as a safety mechanism, it can also mean that politically motivated cases would be filed only.

The Bill allows for the seizure and forfeiture of "anything in relation to the offence", which presumably refers to computers and cell phones.

Right Wing Politics: Jail Time For "Holocaust Denial"







The text of Bill C-413 is modelled on Bill C-250, which was started by Kevin Waugh. However, the contents of that Bill were eventually incorporated into a budget, so this became irrelevant. As a result, people who "publicly deny the Holocaust" can now be locked up for 2 years.

This wasn't just Waugh going rogue. The "Conservative" Party of Canada bragged about this being brought in, at least initially. Although the article was scrubbed, an archive of it is still available.

Things didn't stop there. Yves-François Blanchet and Alexis Brunelle-Duceppe, both part of the Bloc Québécois, introduced Bills C-367 and C-373, respectively. These identical pieces of legislation were aimed at removing the "religious exemption" defence of Holocaust denial.

Back in July 2018, Kevin Waugh took a taxpayer funded trip to Israel. He billed $16,200 for this. It's apparently commonplace to bring Members of Parliament (and spouses) each year to "foster cultural understanding". To be fair, it seems to be commonplace that MPs are travelling to other countries at taxpayer expense.

Waugh, Blanchet and Brunelle-Duceppe were all lobbied by CIJA prior to their respective Bills being introduced. This is the Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs, the Canadian equivalent of AIPAC.

This is the left v.s. right political framework in Canada. There doesn't seem to be any principled protection or dedication to free speech. Instead, special rules are brought in, depending on the political leanings of the people involved.

Time after time, we are seeing hate speech laws being brought for the protection of a specific group. But, will we ever see any legislation that prohibits the "willful promotion of hatred" against whites? Don't count on it.

What kind of denialist BS is this? There were NO bodies or remains found. It is yet another excuse by the Lieberals to divide and conquer us. Get rid of this poor excuse for a MP! I am really getting sick of this constant gaslighting with their underhanded agendas! Enough is enough! Crawl back into the hole you crawled out of!

what happened to Arthur Topham is a good demonstration of how section 319 of the Criminal Code / "hate speech" applies in what we used to call "the real world". Arthur took the book "Germany must perish" * and changed the words Germany / German, so the very same wordage became "Israel must perish". The book calls for the extermination of German manhood he faced 2 counts, identical except for the dates. At trial, the Judge ruled that the book was satire. The jury convicted him of one count, yet acquitted him of the other !! the punishment, was, he was tortured through the meatgrinder of the legal racket, for years, til it came to trial. The battling Barrister = Doug Christie = was Arthur's lawyer, to start with. But Doug passed away before it came to trial. The next lawyer basically 'sold Arthur down the river', not presenting much of a defence. Contrary to my advice, Arthur did NOT take the witness stand. I had arranged for dr Henry Makow – university professor of English – to take the witness stand for the defence. But that lawyer did not call him.

with section 319, the prosecutorial process becomes the punishment

Almost like they're intentionally putting pieces in to place to make our lives as miserable as they can before throwing us all into concentration camps for being white. Bill C293 will give them (the commies) all the power they could want.
